RE: Request for Interview
Coro Foundation
Washington, D.C.
30 May - 3 June 1988

Mr. Alex Hartley, the Director of Training for the Coro Foundation Midwestern Center in St. Louis, requested that you grant an interview to the 1987-88 participants of the Coro Fellows Program when they are in Washington from 30 May - 3 June. The Fellows Program is a nine-month postgraduate program for 12 selected candidates planning careers in public affairs. While in Washington, they will study national government and would like to interview various national leaders.

Mr. Hartley has been contacted by telephone and advised that your schedule is full. Because the attendees are interested in careers in public affairs, I suggest that I plan to meet with the Fellows during their stay in Washington. If you approve, I will send the attached letter to confirm the appointment.

Dear Mr. Hartley:

Thank you for your invitation to the Director of Central Intelligence requesting an interview by the Coro Fellows while they are visiting Washington the week of May 30th. Unfortunately, because of the Director's heavy schedule, he will not be available. Since the Fellows are planning careers in public affairs, I would be happy to meet with them. A member of my staff will be in touch with you to arrange the appointment.

Sincerely,

Training in Public Affairs

April 8, 1988

The Honorable William Webster
Director
Central Intelligence Agency
Washington, D.C. 20505

Dear Mr. Webster,

I am writing on behalf of the 1987-88 Fellows Class of the Coro Foundation Midwestern Center. The Fellows Program is a nine month graduate level leadership training program for individuals interested in careers in public affairs. Their internship placements have included government, political campaigns, community agencies, business, labor unions and media. The Fellows have also interviewed St. Louis area leaders in these areas.

As the culminating experience of the program, the Fellows are planning a trip to Washington D.C. during the week of May 30 to June 3, 1988. The purpose of this trip is to study national government and its effects on the American citizenry. While in the capital, they would like to meet with and interview various national leaders.

Mr. Webster, would you consent to a one hour interview with the Coro Fellows? If so, please return the enclosed card by April 18, 1988, noting a date, time, and place convenient for you. We will contact you to confirm the appointment.

Sincerely, /
